

Dear Colleagues,

The EPA COVID-19 Coordination Team is sponsoring the new “A Conversation with...” informational session series. This series of presentations and discussions is designed to help the EPA workforce navigate our new work environment as we return to the physical workspace.

Please join us for an upcoming conversation with the Office of Mission Support on COVID-19 Safety Protocols (part 1) to hear and ask questions about how the agency is preparing for an increased presence to the workspace and what to expect upon your return to the office.

April 13, 2-3 p.m. ET
