Hi Cheryl,

When can you send me a response? If we don't get a response by 2 PM, we will assume that NASA is declining to comment.

Hello,

I need a response by 3 PM to the following questions.

1. Why did NASA upload a YouTube special to its own YouTube page without making clear in the description that this was not a NASA/federal government production?
2. When and why were the comments section of VP Harris' video turned off? Is it common practice to not allow people to comment? I noticed that this video allows comments but this video does not. How is the decision made to turn off the comments section?
3. Has NASA ever shared and/or promoted a video that was produced by a private entity? If so, can you share that with me?
4. Why did NASA share this video on its page? Who asked NASA to share it?
5. Was NASA aware the children in the videos were child actors?
