

115TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. _____

To amend title 18, United States Code, to safeguard data stored abroad, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

Mr. HATCH (for himself, Mr. COONS, and Mr. HELLER) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on

A BILL

To amend title 18, United States Code, to safeguard data stored abroad, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “International Commu-5 nications Privacy Act”.

6 SEC. 2. CONGRESSIONAL FINDINGS AND DECLARATION OF 7 PURPOSE.

8 Congress finds the following:

9 (1) The Electronic Communications Privacy Act
10 of 1986 (Public Law 99–508; 100 Stat. 1848) (re-

1 ferred to in this section as “ECPA”) was intended 2 to protect the privacy of electronic communications
3 and related records stored with providers of elec-
4 tronic communications services and remote com-
5 puting services, while providing law enforcement 6 agencies with the appropriate legal tools to compel 7 production of information from such providers.

8 (2) ECPA authorized governmental entities to 9 obtain certain categories of communications data
10 from providers using established, pre-existing forms 11 of process, including search warrants and subpoenas.
12 It also created a new form of court order, in section 13 2703(d) of title 18, United States Code, that govern-
14 mental entities could use to obtain additional types 15 of communications data.

16 (3) Congress recognizes that there are often 17 many interests that must be recognized when law
18 enforcement agencies seek information from pro-19 viders, such as—

20 (A) the legitimate needs of law enforce-21 ment agencies in the United States to obtain, 22 through lawful process, electronic communica-
23 tions relevant to criminal investigations;

1 (B) the privacy interests of all customers
2 of the services offered by electronic communica-3 tion service providers; and

4 (C) the legitimate interests of governments 5 to protect the human rights, civil liberties and 6 privacy of their nationals and residents.

7 (4) Therefore, where the Government seeks to 8 obtain the contents of electronic communications of 9 a national of a qualifying foreign government who is 10 located outside of the United States, this Act au-
11 thorizes the use of search warrants to compel pro-12 duction of that information only if the foreign gov-13 ernment receives prior notice of the request and does 14 not object or a judge determines that the interests
15 of the United States in obtaining the information
16 outweigh the interests of the qualifying foreign gov-17 ernment in preventing the disclosure.

18 SEC. 3. EXTENSION AND CLARIFICATION OF WARRANT RE-
19 QUIREMENT.

20 (a) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 121 of title 18, United 21 States Code, is amended—

22 (1) in section 2702(a), by amending paragraph 23 (3) to read as follows:

24 “(3) a provider of remote computing service or 25 electronic communication service to the public shall

1 not knowingly divulge to any governmental entity
2 the contents of any communication described in sec-
3 tion 2703(a), or any record or other information
4 pertaining to a subscriber or customer of such serv-5 ice.”;

6 (2) in section 2703—

7 (A) by striking subsections (a) and (b) and 8 inserting the following:

9 “(a) REQUIRED DISCLOSURE.—A governmental enti-10 ty may require the disclosure by a provider of electronic 11 communication service or remote computing service of the 12 contents of a wire or electronic communication that is 13 stored, held, or maintained by the provider, regardless of 14 where such contents may be in electronic storage or other-15 wise stored, held, or maintained, only pursuant to a war-16 rant issued using the procedures described in the Federal 17 Rules of Criminal Procedure (or, in the case of a State 18 court, issued using State warrant procedures) by a court 19 of competent jurisdiction.”;

20 (B) by redesignating subsections (c)
21 through (g) as subsections (b) through (f), re-22 spectively;

23 (C) in subsection (c), as so redesignated,
24 in the first sentence—

25 (i) by striking “(b) or”;

1 (ii) by striking “the contents of a wire 2 or electronic communication, or”; and

3 (iii) by striking “sought, are” and in-4 serting “sought are”; and

5 (D) by adding at the end the following:

6 “(g) APPLICATION FOR WARRANT SEEKING CON-
7 TENTS OF WIRE OR ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION.—

8 “(1) IN GENERAL.—An application for a war-9 rant under this section seeking the contents of a 10 wire or electronic communication of a subscriber or 11 customer of an electronic communication service pro-12 vider or remote computing service provider that is 13 stored, held, or maintained by such provider shall 14 state the nationality and location of the subscriber 15 or customer whose communications are being 16 sought, unless the nationality and location cannot 17 reasonably be determined.

18 “(2) NATIONALITY AND LOCATION NOT REA-
19 SONABLY DETERMINED.—If the nationality and loca-
20 tion of the subscriber or customer cannot reasonably 21 be determined, the application shall include a full 22 and complete statement of the investigative steps 23 taken to ascertain the nationality and location of the 24 subscriber or customer.

25 “(3) EFFECTIVE DATE.—

1 “(A) IN GENERAL.—The requirements of 2 paragraphs (1) and (2) shall take effect 14
3 days after the date on which the Attorney Gen-
4 eral first publishes a list of not less than 1 5 qualifying foreign country under section 6 2703A(e)(3).

7 “(B) APPLICABILITY.—The requirements
8 of paragraphs (1) and (2) shall not apply dur-9 ing any period of time in which no country is 10 determined by the Attorney General to be a
11 qualifying foreign country.

12 “(4) JURISDICTION OVER OFFENSE.—A court
13 may issue a warrant under this section for the con-14 tents of a wire or electronic communication only if 15 the warrant application was made—

16 “(A) by a governmental entity in connec-
17 tion with an investigation of a criminal offense 18 for which that entity has jurisdiction; or

19 “(B) on behalf of a foreign government in-20 vestigating a criminal offense for which that 21 foreign government has jurisdiction.

22 “(h) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION RELATED TO LEGAL 23 PROCESS.—Nothing in this section, section 2702, or sec-24 tion 2703A shall be construed to limit the authority of 25 a governmental entity to use an administrative subpoena

1 authorized under a Federal or State law or to use a Fed-
2 eral or State grand jury, trial, or civil discovery subpoena 3 to—

4 “(1) require an originator, addressee, or in-5 tended recipient of an electronic communication to 6 disclose the contents of the electronic communication 7 to the governmental entity; or 8 “(2) require an entity that provides electronic 9 communication services to the officers, directors, em-10 ployees, or agents of the entity (for the purpose of 11 carrying out their duties) to disclose the contents of 12 an electronic communication to or from an officer, 13 director, employee, or agent of the entity to a gov-14 ernmental entity, if the electronic communication is 15 held, stored, or maintained on an electronic commu-

16 nications system owned or operated by the entity.”; 17 and

18 (3) by inserting after section 2703 the fol-
19 lowing:

20 “§ 2703A. Special rule for communications of non- 21 United States subscriber or customer in
22 qualifying foreign country

23 “(a) IN GENERAL.—

24 “(1) NOTICE AND OPPORTUNITY TO OBJECT.—

25 Except as provided in paragraph (2), if a subscriber

1 or customer whose communications are being sought
2 is physically located outside the United States, is not 3 a United States person, and is a national of or lo-4 cated in a qualifying foreign country, the court may 5 issue a warrant under section 2703 for the contents 6 of such communications only if—

7 “(A) the qualifying foreign country has 8 been provided notice of the warrant application;
9 and

10 “(B)(i) the Central Authority of the quali-11 fying foreign country has provided written cer-12 tification that the disclosure may be had;

13 “(ii) 14 days have passed since the date on 14 which the notice was provided under subpara-15 graph (A) and the Central Authority of the 16 qualifying foreign country has not initiated a 17 challenge under subsection (c)(1); or

18 “(iii) the Central Authority of the quali-
19 fying foreign country has initiated a challenge 20 under subsection (c)(1) and the court has de-21 nied the challenge.

22 “(2) NATIONALITY AND LOCATION NOT REA-
23 SONABLY DETERMINED.—Paragraph (1) shall not 24 apply if—

1 “(A) the nationality and location of the 2 subscriber or customer whose communications
3 are being sought cannot reasonably be deter-4 mined; and

5 “(B) the requirements of section 6 2703(g)(2) have been met.

7 “(b) CONTENTS OF NOTICE.—The notice required
8 under subsection (a)(1)(A) shall include—

9 “(1) the name, nationality, and location of the 10 subscriber or customer whose communications are 11 being sought;

12 “(2) the name, nationality, and location of the 13 service provider; and 14 “(3) a description of the events or offenses

15 under investigation and how the communications
16 sought are relevant and material to the investiga-17 tion.

18 “(c) CHALLENGE TO WARRANT SEEKING CONTENTS
19 OF WIRE OR ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION.—

20 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Upon a motion made
21 promptly by a service provider or by the Central Au-
22 thority of a qualifying foreign country, a court re-23 ceiving a warrant application under section 2703 or 24 issuing a warrant under section 2703 for the con-25 tents of a wire or electronic communication of a sub-

1 subscriber or customer who is physically located outside
2 the United States and who is not a United States 3 person shall deny, modify, or quash the warrant, as 4 appropriate, if the court finds that—

5 “(A) the subscriber or customer is a na-
6 tional of or located in a qualifying foreign coun-7 try and the qualifying foreign country was not 8 provided notice of the warrant application in ac-9 cordance with subsection (a)(1)(A), unless the 10 court issued an order under subsection
11 (d)(2)(A) waiving the requirements of sub-12 section (a)(1); or

13 “(B)(i) disclosure would cause the service
14 provider to violate the laws of a foreign country; 15 and

16 “(ii) based on the totality of the cir-
17 cumstances, the warrant should not be issued 18 or enforced because the interests of the foreign 19 country in preventing the disclosure and the 20 penalties the service provider or any employees 21 of the service provider would likely suffer as a
22 result of violating the laws of the foreign coun-23 try outweigh the investigative interests of the 24 governmental entity seeking to compel the dis-25 closure.

1 “(2) COMITY ANALYSIS.—For purposes of mak-
2 ing a determination under paragraph (1)(B)(ii), the 3 court shall take into account, as appropriate—

4 “(A) the laws of the foreign country;

5 “(B) the investigative interests of the gov-
6 ernmental entity seeking to compel the disclo-7 sure;

8 “(C) the interests of the foreign govern-
9 ment in preventing the disclosure;

10 “(D) the reasons, if any, for the objection
11 of the foreign government;

12 “(E) the penalties the provider or any em-13 ployees of the provider would likely suffer as a
14 result of violating the laws of the foreign coun-
15 try;

16 “(F) the location and nationality of the 17 subscriber or customer whose communications
18 are being sought;

19 “(G) the location and nationality of the 20 victims;

21 “(H) the location of the offense;

22 “(I) the seriousness of the offense;

23 “(J) the importance of the sought-after 24 data to the investigation; and

1 “(K) the possibility of timely accessing the 2 data through other means.

3 “(3) DISCLOSURE OBLIGATIONS DURING PEND-
4 ENCY OF CHALLENGE.—A service provider shall not 5 be obligated to produce the contents of the commu-
6 nications sought during the pendency of a challenge 7 brought under this subsection.

8 “(d) EXCEPTIONS TO 14-DAY NOTICE PERIOD.—

9 “(1) EXPEDITED TREATMENT.—

10 “(A) IN GENERAL.—A court may issue an 11 order shortening the time period described in 12 subsection (a)(1)(A) to a time period not less 13 than 7 days, if the court finds, based on specific 14 and articulable facts, that such expedited treat-15 ment is necessary to avoid one or more of the 16 adverse results identified in section 2705(a)(2).

17 “(B) NOTICE.—An order issued under 18 subparagraph (A) shall be served upon a rep-19 resentative of the Central Authority of the 20 qualifying foreign country in a timely manner.

21 “(2) DELAY OF NOTICE IN EXCEPTIONAL CIR-
22 CUMSTANCES.—

23 “(A) DELAY OF NOTICE.—

24 “(i) IN GENERAL.—A court receiving 25 an application for a warrant under section

1 2703 for the contents of a wire or elec-2 tronic communication of a subscriber or 3 customer who is physically located outside 4 the United States, who is not a United 5 States person, and who is a national of or 6 located in a qualifying foreign country may 7 issue an order waiving the requirements of 8 subsection (a)(1) for 90 days, if the court
9 finds, based on specific and articulable
10 facts, that providing notice of the warrant
11 application to the qualifying foreign coun-12 try would—

13 “(I) jeopardize national security;

14 or

15 “(II) result in one or more of the 16 adverse results identified in section 17 2705(a)(2) because—

18 “(aa) the potential criminal 19 activity under investigation is 20 sponsored or directed by the 21 qualifying foreign country; or

22 “(bb) there is reason to be-23 lieve that, notwithstanding the 24 certification required under sub-
25 section (e)(1)(A)(ii), the quali-

1 fying foreign country would no-
2 tify the subject of the investiga-
3 tion of the existence of the inves-
4 tigation, the existence of the war-
5 rant application, or both.

6 “(ii) ISSUANCE OF WARRANT.—Upon
7 a finding described in clause (i), and fol-
8 lowing issuance of an order under clause
9 (i), the court may issue the warrant forth-10 with.

11 “(B) EXTENSION OF ORDER DELAYING
12 NOTICE.—An order waiving the requirements of 13 subsection (a)(1) may be extended in 90-day in-14 crements until the investigation is completed.
15 Any extension of an order under this subpara-16 graph shall be made only upon a finding by the 17 court, based on specific and articulable facts, 18 that providing notice to the qualifying foreign 19 country would lead to one or more of the ad-
20 verse results identified in subparagraph
21 (A)(i)(II).

22 “(C) EFFECT OF EXPIRATION OR NON-
23 RENEWAL.—

24 “(i) IN GENERAL.—Upon expiration 25 or nonrenewal of an order issued under

1 subparagraph (A) the court shall suspend
2 the warrant.

3 “(ii) DURATION OF SUSPENSION.—
4 The suspension of a warrant under clause 5 (i) shall remain in effect until—

6 “(I) the qualifying foreign coun-
7 try is provided notice of the warrant 8 application; and

9 “(II)(aa) the Central Authority
10 of the qualifying foreign country pro-
11 vides written certification that the dis-12 closure may be had;

“(bb) the end of the 14-day period beginning on the date on which the notice described in clause (i) was provided to the qualifying foreign country, if during the 14-day period the Central Authority of the qualifying foreign country does not initiate a challenge under subsection (c)(1); or 21 “(cc) the Central Authority of 22 the qualifying foreign country initiates

23 a challenge under subsection (c)(1)
24 and the court rules on the challenge.

1 “(iii) IMMEDIATE LIFT OF SUSPEN-
2 SION.—For purposes of clause (ii)(II)(cc),
3 if the court denies the challenge, the court
4 shall immediately lift the suspension.

5 “(e) QUALIFYING FOREIGN COUNTRY.—

6 “(1) DEFINITION.—In this section, the term
7 ‘qualifying foreign country’ means a foreign country
8 that—

9 “(A) has certified to the Attorney General
10 that—

11 “(i) it will provide to the United 12 States Government substantive and proce-13 dural opportunities similar to those under 14 this section when the foreign country is 15 seeking information about United States
16 persons from electronic communications
17 service providers or remote computing
18 service providers subject to its jurisdiction;
19 and

20 “(ii) in the event it is provided notice
21 of an application for a warrant under sub-22 section (a)(1)(A), upon request from the 23 United States Government it will not no-24 tify the subject of the investigation of the 1 existence of the investigation, the existence 2 of the warrant application, or both; and

3 “(B) the Attorney General, in consultation
4 with the Secretary of State, has determined—

18 viders subject to its jurisdiction; and 19 “(iv) will not unnecessarily impede le-20 gitimate criminal investigations or other-

25 cations.

1 “(2) DETERMINATION REQUIRED.—Not later
2 than 60 days after the date on which the Attorney
3 General receives the certifications described in para-
4 graph (1)(A) from a foreign country, the Attorney
5 General, in consultation with the Secretary of State,
6 shall determine whether the country satisfies the re-7 quirements described in paragraph (1)(B). If the At-8 torney General determines a country satisfies the re-9 quirements described in paragraph (1)(B), the At-10 torney General shall add the country to the list of 11 qualifying foreign countries under paragraph (3).

12 “(3) LIST OF QUALIFYING FOREIGN COUN-13 TRIES.—The Attorney General shall—14 “(A) publish and make publicly available a 15 list of the countries that satisfy the require-16 ments described in paragraph (1);

17 “(B) add to the list published under sub-18 paragraph (A) any country that comes into 19 compliance with the requirements described in 20 paragraph (1); and

21 “(C) remove from the list published under 22 subparagraph (A) any country that ceases to 23 comply with the requirements described in para-24 graph (1).

7 1801 et seq.).”;

15 (C) by adding at the end the following:

16 “(5) the term ‘United States person’ means a 17 citizen of the United States or an alien lawfully ad-18 mitted for permanent residence (as defined in sec-

20 be susceptible for use by a foreign govern-
21 ment to provide all the information nec-
22 essary for the MLAT request;

23 (B) an online docketing system for all 24 MLAT requests, which shall allow a foreign

1 government to track the status of an MLAT re-

SEC. 5. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

It is the sense of Congress that—

(1) data localization requirements imposed by foreign governments on data providers are—

(A) incompatible with the borderless nature of the Internet;

(B) an impediment to online innovation;

and

(C) unnecessary to meet the needs of law enforcement; and

(2) the Department of Justice, the Department of State, and the United States Trade Representatives should pursue open data flow policies with foreign nations.
