Q14. Switching gears, the last New York State Constitutional Convention was held in 1967. Since then, New Yorkers have twice voted against having a constitutional convention - in both 1977 and 1997. In 2017, New Yorkers will again have an opportunity to vote on whether or not there should be a State Constitutional Convention. How much have you heard about that vote in 2017 on whether or not to have a constitutional convention. Would you say you have heard a great deal,

Q34. Finally, some professional football players have been kneeling on one knee during the national anthem to protest what they see as racial injustice. President Trump has denounced that behavior as un-American and called for NFL owners to fire those athletes.
