Dear Leader McConnell, Minority Leader Schumer, Speaker Pelosi, and Minority Leader McCarthy,

I write to urge you to work together to ensure that Congress passes a tax extenders package as soon as possible. For companies that have relied on the lapsed incentives, it is imperative that we pass these extensions before the April 15, 2019 filing deadline.

My office has heard concerns from numerous businesses that the lack of certainty due to the expired provisions is harming their businesses and workers. Some are concerned that they may go out of business.

Congress must engage in bipartisan work to provide taxpayers with certainty. These provisions are essential to the health of businesses across the country and require our immediate attention. I strongly urge congressional leadership to take up this issue ahead of the 2018 tax filing deadline.

Sincerely,

Michael F. Bennet
United States Senator
