Joni Ernst is at her telecom donors' service, WHILE SHE LEAVES IOWANS WITH LITTLE SERVICE AT ALL.

 Joni Ernst has taken nearly $70,000 in contributions from the telecommunications industry.¹

 And she voted against funding for rural broadband.²

 She stated that the federal government should not interfere with rural broadband.³

 And Ernst voted to let internet service providers sell Iowans' personal data, including our sensitive financial and health information, and our Social Security numbers.⁴
