Subject: EPA's Martin Luther King Jr. National Observance

Colleagues,

EPA's Martin Luther King Jr. National Observance will honor the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. on January 27 starting at 12:00 p.m. ET via a Teams Live Event. Please mark your calendar and plan to attend.

The 2021 theme “Where Do We Go from Here: Chaos or Community” is based on the title of Dr. King's final book published in 1967. The panel discussion will focus on the current state of Civil Rights and its path forward, equally relevant today as it was during the Civil Rights Movement of the 1960s.

The panel will consist of: Lilian Sotolongo Dorka, Director of External Civil Rights Compliance Office - OGC, Mike Harris, Director of the Enforcement and Compliance Assurance Division – Region 5, Kimberly Patrick, Director, Office of Acquisition Solutions - OMS, and Nigel Simon, Director of Program Management - OLEM.

Sign Language Interpreters will be present for the event. Persons needing reasonable accommodations should contact Kristin Tropp, National Reasonable Accommodation Program, Office of Civil Rights, at 202-559-0006 or tropp.kristin@epa.gov.

Best regards,

Jane Nishida, Acting Administrator

Dan Utech, Chief of Staff
